Tulsa, June 1.—Ten white men are known to have been killed in the race war that raged here from Tuesday night until noon...

Practically the entire negro district is a mass of ruins. The loss will reach into thousands of dollars. It is believed that the white resident districts which were menaced will be saved from the flames which are still raging in the negro section.

The city and county are under martial law. Adjutant Barrett, of the Oklahoma National Guard, is in control.

M. Baker, 27, Haviland, Kan. Clyde Greaves, 30, Tulsa. Three other white men, all unidentified, are lying in the morgues.

HOW THE BIG FIGHT IN TULSA STARTED

Tulsa, June 1.—The race rioting that broke out here late Tuesday night grew out of the arrest Tuesday afternoon of Dick Rowland, a negro bootblack, on a charge of assaulting a white elevator girl in the Irexel building on Monday.

There was a movement about 7 p. m. reported among white people to go to the county courthouse Tuesday night and lynch the bootblack. This report spread over "Little Africa" and early in the evening crowds of negroes began forming.

Rowland was taken from the city to the county jail Tuesday afternoon and his preliminary trial set for June 7 in municipal court.

Rowland was arrested on South Greenwood avenue early Tuesday morning by officers Henry Carmic-hal and H. C. Pach. He was identified by the girl after his capture.

WHEN DO DISTRICT JUDGES ENJOY BOOST?

State Auditor Says Act Raising Pay Dates From Signing of Bill By Governor, Asks Opinion

Oklahoma City, June 1.—District judges hoping for the payment of past due traveling expenses and salaries authorized by the legislature at its regular session but not provided for with an actual appropriation until the special session, are out of luck, according to Frank Carter, state auditor who declared Tuesday the $34,000 out of which funds were to come cannot be expended on any claims bearing a date prior to May 14, 1921.

Senate joint resolution 2, making the $34,000 available, was introduced by R. L. Davidson of Tulsa. It attempts to pay back salaries and traveling expenses due since October. Its first section, however, as interpreted by Carter, makes funds available only during the "remainder of the fiscal year" and he takes the words to mean from the date Governor Robertson signed the bill.

Section 1 of the measure in question follows:

"That the salaries of district judges and district court reporters, authorized since the adjournment of the regular session of the legislature, and the expenses of district judges and district court reporters, may be paid out of said fund of $34,000; and the state auditor is hereby authorized to pay said salaries and expenses during the remainder of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1921."

Carter interprets the act to mean salaries coming due between the date of passage and June 30 can be paid by him. However, Clark Nichols of Enfield, member of the senate, contends it means the state auditor shall pay back salaries between the date of passage and June 30. Nichols visited the attorney general's office Tuesday in the interest of an opinion which may straighten the matter out.
